

Net neutrality must be preserved. The public has no power to protect ourselves so we must rely on the FCC to protect our interests.